Newsletter

20th September 2013

Some of our older pupils have been out and about this week visiting other schools and taking part in special events.

Ellie Pearson, David Solademi, Amy Rowland, Adam Curzey, Jessica Read and David Hobson visited Woodgate Primary School for a morning of Mystery and suspense writing.

Mya Campbell, Phoebe Roberts-Baker, Asha Bott and Abby Gregory went to King Edward's Five Ways to spend the day undertaking various activities and also enjoyed tea with the Lord Mayor.

My thanks to all the children for representing the school so well. I know that they all impressed with their work, good manners and enthusiasm.

Free School Meals

Please remember to register your child for free school meals and bring proof to the school office.

Thank you

Full time Nursery Places

We recently wrote to parents giving the criteria for a full time Nursery place.

If you think you qualify for a free full time place please see Mrs Bagnall as soon as possible.

We need to make our application for funding for full time places at the start of October.

Lunchtime Supervisors

We are currently seeking Lunchtime supervisors. If you or someone you know are interested in applying for this post please contact the school office for an application form

Homework Club is open to parents and pupils on Thursday's from 3.30pm—4.30pm. This is an excellent opportunity to get support for homework and also use the school facilities.

Attendance

Reception/KS1	1T with 98.67%
KS2	3M with 99.67%
