Anti-bullying week

This week we have been talking about Anti-bullying week. The children have been undertaking work about this in their classrooms and this has also been the theme of this weeks assemblies. The aim of the week was to give children strategies for dealing with the challenging situations we sometimes find ourselves in throughout our lives and to reassure them that here at Albert Bradbeer there is always someone who can help solve the problems.

4-a-side football

Congratulations to the Yr 5/6 4-a-side football team for winning both of their matches to qualify for the finals night. Henry Bird, Shane Waldron, Jay Welsh, Connor Cashmore, David McQuaide and Tyree Sanusi will now compete for the district trophy on Friday 28th November 2014.

Maths challenge

Congratulations to Aimee Godden, Louis Cobb, Liam Wyton and Phoebe Roberts-Baker. They recently competed in the Explore Learning Maths challenge and won their heat.

They now move forward to the next round to compete against other local winners from round 1. If successful they will then travel to Cambridge University to compete in the National final.
